1. Purpose

This Student Code of Conduct outlines the expectations of students enrolled at Baton Rouge Community College (BRCC) and the processes that will be followed to determine whether a student or student organization has violated this Conduct Code.

2. Policy

Students are subject to college jurisdiction, meaning it is expected that students follow the Conduct Code while they are enrolled at BRCC. By enrolling, students agree to adhere to BRCC policies and contribute to a respectful academic environment. BRCC and the Louisiana Community and Technical College System (LCTC) reserve the right to take disciplinary action against any student whose conduct, in the opinion of college representatives, adversely affects BRCC's pursuit of its educational objectives. Students who are involved in the conduct process should expect any sanctions imposed to be enforced at all LCTC System colleges, campuses and centers. The Conduct Code applies both to the conduct of individual students as well as student organizations.

The Conduct Code applies to all student activities within BRCC, the LCTC System, or their foundations' programs or activities, wherever located. The Conduct Code also applies to all student conduct occurring on the college campus and on any property owned, leased or operated by BRCC, the LCTC System, or their foundations. The Conduct Code additionally applies to any property used as a student residence and in regard to which students have expressly agreed to abide by or provided written consent to be governed by college policies. The Conduct Code also applies to off-campus conduct when the acts arise from college activities, undermines the security of the college community or the integrity of the educational process, or poses a serious threat to self or others.

Students in specialized programs, such as nursing and other allied health programs, are also subject to the additional requirements of those specialized programs as laid out in the programs' handbooks and policies, state law, and the requirements of the students' clinical placement sites. Please review those programs' policies and procedures carefully, as the process for handling possible violations of those requirements may differ from the process laid out in this Conduct Code.

3. Responsibilities

The Provost/Vice Chancellor for Workforce and Student Development, or designee, at each college shall be responsible for implementing and maintaining procedures that are consistent with this policy and comply with applicable policies of the LCTC System.

4. Definitions

- 4.1 Academic Misconduct – This is when a student intentionally engages in deceptive conduct to gain an unfair advantage in his/her academic work.
- 4.2 Accused Student or Respondent – a student or student organization who has been accused of violating the Conduct Code.

- 4.3 Appeal – If a student is found responsible for violating the Conduct Code the student may request an appeal, meaning the case will be reviewed with the opportunity of a different outcome possible.
- 4.4 Charge – Listed in the “Notice of Charge”, which provides notice of any and all alleged violations of the college’s nonacademic rules or policies by identifying the section of the Conduct Code or other policy that the Respondent is alleged to have violated, any evidence the college has collected when making the charging decision, and the disciplinary procedures that will be followed.
- 4.5 Clear and Convincing Evidence – The evidentiary standard used to determine if there is sufficient evidence to conclude that a respondent violated a provision of the Conduct Code that carries a potential penalty of ten (10) or more days, with the exception of conduct resulting in serious bodily injury. To prove a fact by clear and convincing evidence means to demonstrate that the existence of that fact is much more probable than its non-existence. This standard of proof is more demanding than the preponderance of the evidence standard (more likely than not), but less demanding than the beyond a reasonable doubt standard (applicable in criminal cases).
- 4.6 College-Sponsored Activity – Any activity on or off campus which is initiated, authorized, aided, or supervised by the college.
- 4.7 Complainant – Any individual that submits a report alleging that a student violated the Student Code of Conduct. The complainant does not need to be the person who was the target or victim of the alleged violation.
- 4.8 Conduct Advisor – Any one person designated by the accused student to support the student through the conduct process. This person can include, but is not limited to a parent, friend, college faculty or staff member, or attorney (at the student's own expense).
- 4.9 Conduct Hearing Committee – The group of people, trained in the conduct process, which adjudicates a conduct charge. The committee makes a determination of responsibility and imposes sanctions if a student is found responsible.
- 4.10 Dating Violence – Dating violence is violence, force, or threat that results in bodily injury or places one in reasonable apprehension of death, sexual assault, or bodily injury committed by a person who is or has been in a close relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the other person. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the people involved in the relationship.
- 4.11 Decision Letter – A letter sent to the respondent and any complainant stating whether the respondent has been found responsible or not responsible for the alleged Conduct Code violations.

- 4.12 Disposition of a Violation – Determination of responsibility, or lack thereof, for an alleged violation and any sanctions imposed.
- 4.13 Domestic Violence – Domestic violence is violence, force, or threat that results in bodily injury or places one in reasonable apprehension of death, sexual assault, or bodily injury and that is committed by a person against such person's family or household member, which includes a current or former spouse, a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, or who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the person as a spouse or intimate partner.
- 4.14 Evidence – Available information about a conduct case that is used to arrive at a disposition and, if applicable, sanction.
- 4.15 Formal Conduct Hearing – A formal meeting by the Conduct Hearing Committee in which the Committee considers the evidence and determines whether an accused student violated the Conduct Code, and if so, what sanctions should be imposed.
- 4.16 Incident Report – A report alleging the student violated the college's Conduct Code and submitted by any academic or administrative official, faculty member, student, or member of the public.
- 4.17 Informal Hearing – A conference or administrative meeting with a student conduct officer to discuss the alleged violation.
- 4.18 Mitigating Circumstances – Evidence relating to an offense that may offer context to the alleged violation and may reasonably be considered by the Conduct Hearing Committee to lessen the severity of the sanctions.
- 4.19 Preponderance of Evidence – The evidentiary standard used to determine if there is sufficient evidence to conclude that a respondent violated a provision of the Conduct Code when the matter involves: (a) serious bodily injury, or (b) a violation that is adjudicated via Informal Hearing, or (c) academic misconduct. To prove a fact by a preponderance of the evidence means to demonstrate that it is more likely than not that the fact is true.
- 4.20 Respondent – The person alleged to have violated this Conduct Code.
- 4.21 Sanction – Disciplinary measures implemented when a student is found responsible for violating the Conduct Code and which are then outlined in the decision letter to the student. A sanction applies college-wide and is not campus specific.
- 4.22 Student – Individuals enrolled in at least one course during the current semester for credit or non-credit (workforce), including adult education and dual-enrolled high school students, or enrolled for at least one course in the upcoming semester at the college.
- 4.23 Student Organization – association, corporation, order, society, corps, cooperative, club, service group, social group, band, spirit group, athletic team, or similar group whose members are primarily students at, or former students of, a postsecondary education institution, including the national or parent organization of which any of the underlying entities provided for in this definition is a sanctioned or recognized member.

Conduct that is protected under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution or Article I, Section 7 of the Constitution of Louisiana will not be deemed to be disruptive acts. Protected conduct includes: lawful protests and counter-protests in the outdoor areas of campus generally accessible to members of the public, except during times when these areas have been reserved in advance for other events, or minor, brief, or fleeting nonviolent disruptions of events that are isolated and short in duration. - 5.10.1.2 “Camping Tent” does not include a tent with all sides entirely open and where there is an unobstructed view into such tent from the outside at all angles. All other conduct provisions apply to the use of open tents.

- 5.21 Unattended Minors on Campus: Leaving children unattended or unsupervised in campus buildings or on campus grounds. While the college community generally welcomes students and their families to our campuses, safety and other operational goals require that minors who are not enrolled in courses or participating in college-sponsored events or activities always remain under the direct supervision of a responsible adult or family member (not a college employee).

- 5.29 Sexual Harassment: Engaging in conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

Students have a continuing duty to promptly report to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, any arrests for violations of federal, state, local, or international law, excluding minor traffic violations that do not result in injury to others. This duty applies regardless of where the arrest occurred (inside or outside of Louisiana) and regardless of whether the college is in session at the time of the arrest. An arrest includes the issuance of a written citation or summons regardless of whether the student is taken into custody by law enforcement. Charges related to driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs are not “minor traffic violations” and must be reported. Failure to promptly report any such arrests constitutes a violation of this policy.

6. Incident Report is Submitted

- 6.1 Any academic or administrative official, faculty member, student, or member of the public may file a complaint against any student for misconduct. Use this link to report student misconduct.
- 6.2 Any report against a college employee alleging discrimination, retaliation, or harassment will follow the process laid out in Policy # 6.011 – Prohibition and Prevention of Discrimination, Harassment and Retaliation. Use this form to report a college employee for discrimination, retaliation, or harassment.
- 6.3 If the alleged violation involves allegations of Sexual Misconduct or Power-Based Violence (PBV), the report will be referred to the Title IX Coordinator for evaluation under Policy # 9.001 – Power-Based Violence/Sexual Misconduct, or under Policy # 9.002 – Title IX Grievance Procedures. Use this link to report student misconduct involving Power-Based Violence/Sexual Misconduct.

- 6.4 If the Title IX Coordinator determines that the alleged conduct falls outside the scope of the PBV Policy and Title IX Grievance Procedures, the Title IX Coordinator will refer the matter back to the conduct office to be addressed following the processes described in this Conduct Code.
- 6.5 If the Title IX Coordinator determines that the alleged conduct does fall within the scope of the PBV Policy or the Title IX Grievance Procedures, the matter will be adjudicated through the PBV Policy Grievance Procedures or Title IX Grievance Procedures, as appropriate.
- 6.6 Interim Measures - If the student conduct officer believes that the alleged conduct presents a physical threat to the community, the report will be immediately referred to appropriate staff to determine whether the implementation of interim measures is appropriate while the complaint proceeds to adjudication. If interim measures are to be implemented:
 - 6.6.1 The student will be provided with written notice of the interim measures within 72 hours of the alleged violation being deemed an immediate threat. The written notice will explain the college's reasons for implementing the interim measures.
 - 6.6.2 Within seven business days of the written notice to the student respondent, unless waived by the student respondent, the college will hold an interim measure hearing to determine whether there is substantial evidence that the student poses a risk to the physical safety of a member of the campus community and that the interim measure is appropriate to mitigate that risk. Both the student respondent and any student complainant are entitled to be represented by an advisor at the interim measures hearing. Each student's advisor may fully participate in the interim measures hearing, which includes the opportunity to make opening and closing statements, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to provide the student respondent and any student complainant with support, guidance and advice. If the student respondent waives the interim measures hearing, that waiver shall not constitute an admission of or the waiver of any additional rights. At the conclusion of the interim measures hearing, the interim measures may be upheld, denied or modified.
 - 6.6.3 A student who is barred from campus as an interim measure may be allowed to complete coursework during the interim measures. Credit for this coursework is conditional and may be affected, delayed, denied, and/or revoked if the student respondent is found responsible at the conclusion of the disciplinary process.

7. Review of the Report

- 7.1 When the student conduct officer receives a report that a student has allegedly violated the Conduct Code, the conduct officer shall review the report to determine whether the report alleges facts that, if true, would constitute a violation of this Conduct Code. After that review, the conduct officer will either:

- 7.1.1 Dismiss the allegation as not implicating the Conduct Code, or
- 7.1.2 Schedule a conference with the respondent to notify the respondent of the allegations, provide a reasonable opportunity to review the complaint, and an opportunity to present information concerning the allegations and identify witnesses.

8. Informal Resolution

- 8.1 If the conduct officer determines an informal resolution may be appropriate, informal resolution meeting requests will be sent to the parties' registered emails of record. The notice will inform the students that informal resolution is voluntary, not mandatory, and that the students may proceed to formal process should they wish to do so.
- 8.2 Either party (complainant or respondent) may request to participate in informal resolution. The conduct officer is the sole administrator who determines whether an informal resolution meeting may be appropriate considering the specific allegations.
- 8.3 Informal resolutions are mutually agreed upon determinations and, as such, are not appealable. During an informal resolution meeting, each student and conduct officer will discuss the alleged misconduct, the evidence the college used and collected when determining the charges, whether the respondent student wishes to accept responsibility for the conduct, and sanctions/remedial/measures/educational requirements of the proposed informal resolution agreement.
 - 8.3.1 If the matter is successfully resolved by informal resolution, the conduct officer and the parties will enter into a written informal resolution agreement that documents the charges for which the student respondent has accepted responsibility and the sanctions/remedial measures/educational requirements to be completed by the student respondent. If the matter is not resolved by informal resolution, it will proceed to formal process.

9. Disciplinary Procedures for Nonacademic Misconduct Carrying a Potential Penalty of Suspension for 10 or More Days or Removal of an Organization (Formal Hearing Process).

Student and organizational respondents are afforded the right to due process.

- 9.1 Due Process Rights.
 - 9.1.1 Complainants and respondents are entitled to be advised by an attorney or non-attorney advocate, at the student's expense, who may fully participate in any disciplinary proceeding under this section of the Conduct Code. "Fully participate" means that the attorney or non-attorney advocate may make opening and closing statements, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and provide support, guidance, and advice to the student.

- 9.1.2 Respondents are presumed to be not responsible for the conduct charges. Respondents may not be deemed responsible for a violation unless and until the respondent either (1) formally acknowledges responsibility, (2) is found responsible at the conclusion of a disciplinary hearing at which the college has proven every element of the violation by clear and convincing evidence, or (3) is found responsible at the conclusion of a disciplinary hearing for conduct that resulted in serious bodily injury at which the college has proven every element of the violation by a preponderance of the evidence.
- 9.1.3 Complainants and respondents are entitled to reasonable continuing access to the administrative disciplinary file. Complainants and respondents will be given the opportunity to make copies of all evidence or documents in the administrative disciplinary file at least seven days prior to any disciplinary hearing. The evidence and documents may be redacted before inspection or copying to comply with applicable law.
- 9.1.4 Complainants and respondents are entitled to disciplinary proceedings that are free from conflicts of interest. The following roles will be carried out by different individuals: victim/complainant counselor or advocate, investigator, institutional prosecutor, adjudicator, and appellate adjudicator.
- 9.1.5 These rights extend to any student organization respondent that is officially recognized by an LCTC System member college.
- 9.1.6 A student or student organization may have a private right of action for violation of these due process requirements.

9.2 Notice of Charges/Investigation/Allegations

The conduct officer will send a notice of charges/investigation/allegations within fourteen days of receipt of the report that includes: (1) that the respondent is presumed not to be responsible for the charges and will not be determined to be responsible unless or until the respondent either formally acknowledges responsibility or at the conclusion of a formal hearing where each and every element of the charge has been proven by the applicable standard of proof (either clear and convincing evidence or a preponderance), (2) identification of each and every section of the college's Conduct Code or other rules or policies that the student is alleged to have violated, (3) any evidence the college used and collected when determining the charges, and (4) the disciplinary procedures that will be followed.

Notice of charges will be sent to student's registered email of record address within fourteen (14) days of when the college receives sufficient information to initiate disciplinary proceedings.

9.3 Investigation and Formal Conduct Hearing

- 9.3.1 For matters that will proceed via Formal Conduct Hearing, the conduct officer will appoint an unbiased Investigator to conduct any additional investigation needed to prepare the matter for Formal Conduct Hearing. The Investigator will collect relevant evidence and witness statements, and may draft a summary report, all of which will become a part of the administrative file.
- 9.3.2 The conduct officer will appoint an unbiased Hearing Chair to preside over the Formal Conduct Hearing, which will be heard by a three- member panel, one of which is the Hearing Chair. The Hearing Chair will set the date, time, and place for the hearing.
 - 9.3.2.1 The conduct officer will notify the student respondent and complainant (if any) via their registered email of record of the date, time, and place of the hearing. The notice of the hearing will be sent at least seven (7) business days before the disciplinary hearing.
 - 9.3.2.2 The respondent and complainant will be given reasonable continuing access to the administrative file and the ability to make copies of all evidence and documents in the file, subject to redactions required by law, at least seven (7) business days before the disciplinary hearing.
 - 9.3.2.3 The hearing may be conducted in whole or in part by electronic means (i.e., via Zoom or Microsoft Teams), at the discretion of the Hearing Chair.
 - 9.3.2.4 The hearing will be audio or video-recorded.
 - 9.3.2.5 The conduct officer will have the discretion to alter the arrangements of the hearing for good cause.
 - 9.3.2.6 No person in the adjudicative process will assume more than one of the following roles: a. victim counselor and victim advocate, b. investigator, c. institutional prosecutor or conduct officer, d. adjudicator, or e. appellate adjudicator.
- 9.3.3 The hearing committee will hold the hearing as scheduled and make a finding of responsible or not responsible, regardless of whether the respondent student is present, provided the committee has confirmation that the student was sent actual notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing to the student's registered email of record.
- 9.3.4 Complainants and respondents are entitled to be advised by an attorney or non-attorney advocate, at the student's expense, who may fully participate (make opening and closing statements, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and provide support, guidance, and advice to the student) during the disciplinary hearing.

- 9.3.5 The committee will presume the respondent is not responsible for the alleged violation. A respondent will not be found responsible unless and until the facts and information presented support a finding by clear and convincing evidence of every element of the charged conduct violation, or by a preponderance of the evidence standard if the violation resulted in serious bodily injury as established by objective evidence such as law enforcement reports, medical records, or other comparable documentation. If the committee applies the preponderance of the evidence standard, it must issue written findings describing what objective evidence it relied upon to determine that the conduct caused serious bodily injury.
- 9.3.6 The committee will proceed as follows during the hearing:
- 9.3.6.1 The conduct officer reads the complaint.
 - 9.3.6.2 The student complainant or advisor is permitted, but not required, to make a brief opening statement.
 - 9.3.6.3 The student respondent or advisor is permitted, but not required, to make a brief opening statement.
 - 9.3.6.4 The Investigator is questioned by the hearing committee. The hearing committee will not ask the Investigator for his or her opinion about whether a violation of this Conduct Code has occurred. The Investigator is then subject to examination, first by the complainant's advisor, and then by the respondent's advisor.
 - 9.3.6.5 The complainant provides a direct examination, conducted by the complainant's advisor. The respondent's advisor may then cross-examine the complainant. The hearing committee may ask questions of the complainant at any time.
 - 9.3.6.6 The respondent provides a direct examination, conducted by the respondent's advisor. The complainant's advisor may then cross-examine the respondent. The hearing committee may ask questions of the respondent at any time.
 - 9.3.6.7 The hearing committee may invite witnesses to provide statements. The direct examination of such witnesses will be conducted by the hearing committee, followed by examination or cross-examination by the complainant's advisor, and examination or cross-examination by the respondent's advisor.
 - 9.3.6.8 The hearing committee will not use formal rules of evidence but will make good faith efforts to include relevant evidence and exclude evidence that is irrelevant to the conduct charged. The hearing committee may consider hearsay, including prior statements of witnesses, or parties, who fail to appear at the disciplinary hearing.

- 9.3.6.9 After the hearing, the hearing committee will determine whether or not there has been sufficient evidence presented to conclude that the respondent is responsible for any of the conduct violations with which he or she has been charged. The hearing committee will draft a hearing rationale, which will include a summary of the evidence considered, the committee's determination of facts, and an explanation of why the respondent was or was not found responsible. The hearing committee will append to its rationale a copy of the appeal procedures and deadlines contained in this Conduct Code.
- 9.3.6.10 If the respondent is found responsible, the hearing committee will select and recommend an appropriate sanction from the list in Section 8 of this policy. The hearing committee may consult with appropriate college staff to determine the appropriate sanction. The sanctions will be described in the hearing rationale.
- 9.3.6.11 The student conduct officer will send the hearing committee's rationale and the appeal procedures contained in Section 5.7 of this Conduct Code to the respondent and any complainant.
- 9.3.6.12 The hearing committee's rationale will become part of the student respondent's conduct record.
- 9.3.6.13 This notification will be sent via the student's registered email of record.
- 9.3.6.14 New information that becomes available after the conclusion of the hearing but prior to the final decision of the conduct officer may, at the discretion of the conduct officer, be referred to the hearing committee for reconsideration of the case. Should this occur, the respondent and complainant will be given at least seven (7) business days' notice of the reconvening of the disciplinary hearing.

9.3.7 Hearing Records

- 9.3.7.1 All relevant evidence will be given to the hearing committee during the hearing and be made part of the hearing record. The hearing record will include the notices of charges, all documents and evidence in the college's possession relevant to the charged violation and the college's investigation, including any exculpatory evidence, documents submitted by the participants, and an audio or video recording or transcript of the disciplinary hearing.

- 9.3.7.2 The hearing record will also include a copy of the notices of charges and hearing that were provided to the students. The hearing record will be forwarded to the conduct officer and securely maintained for seven (7) years, consistent with the LCTC System records retention schedule.

10. Disciplinary Procedures for Nonacademic Misconduct Carrying a Potential Penalty of Suspension for 9 or Fewer Days (Informal Hearing)

Students responding to allegations of less serious misconduct that does not carry a potential penalty of suspension for 10 or more days, deferred suspension, or expulsion are entitled to reasonable notice of the allegations and an opportunity to be heard. Informal hearings will be adjudicated by a single conduct officer.

10.1 Review of the Report

- 10.1.1 When the conduct officer receives a report that a student has allegedly violated the Conduct Code, the conduct officer shall review the report to determine whether the report alleges facts that, if true, would constitute a violation of this Conduct Code, and whether the potential sanctions upon a finding of responsibility are such that the matter may proceed via Informal Hearing process. The Informal Hearing process is available to adjudicate only those conduct violations that, if substantiated, would not carry a potential penalty of suspension for 10 or more days, deferred suspension, or expulsion.
- 10.1.2 Notice of Charges - If the matter will proceed by Informal Hearing, the conduct officer will notify the respondent of the allegations, via student's registered email of record, the Conduct Code provisions that the student is alleged to have violated, the evidence used to determine the charges, and will schedule an Informal Hearing with the respondent.

10.2 Informal Hearing

An informal hearing time will be set after consultation with the respondent and any complainant but must occur within fourteen (14) business days of the date the notice of incident was sent to the student.

- 10.2.1 If the student fails to respond or appear, the conduct officer may not make an inference of responsibility due to the student failing to respond or appear. The conduct officer may still find the student responsible, if supported by the preponderance of the evidence obtained, and impose sanctions.
- 10.2.2 During the Informal Hearing, the conduct officer will advise the student respondent of the allegation(s) and explain the student conduct process and clarify student's rights and responsibilities. The student may present his/her case and any mitigating circumstances. Every effort will be made to resolve the matter by mutual agreement.

- 10.2.3 When the facts of the alleged violation are not in dispute, the conduct officer may adjudicate the charged violations during the Informal Hearing. If the facts are in dispute, the conduct officer may elect to gather additional information concerning the allegation before making a determination.
- 10.2.4 If the conduct officer elects to gather more information, the conduct officer will follow up with the accused student within ten (10) business days to provide the student notice of the additional information and an opportunity to respond.
- 10.2.5 The conduct officer will make a finding of responsible or not responsible.
- 10.2.6 The conduct officer will prepare a decision letter and forward a copy to the student and to other appropriate administrative personnel setting forth the finding, the rationale for the finding, and any sanctions imposed. The conduct officer may impose any appropriate disciplinary sanction that is less severe than 9 days suspension or deferred suspension. Mitigating circumstances presented by the student shall be considered. Whether the mitigation offered by the student is sufficient to affect the final disposition is within the discretion of the conduct officer.
- 10.2.7 The decision letter will become part of the student's conduct record.
- 10.2.8 The decision letter will include information on the appeal process.
- 10.2.9 If a student wishes to appeal the outcome of an Informal Hearing, the student must follow the same process outlined in Section 5.7, above.

11. Appeals From Nonacademic Misconduct Hearing Decisions

11.1 Appeal to the Chancellor

Student complainants and respondents each have the right to appeal the case decision to the Chancellor, who in turn may refer the appeal to the appropriate Vice-Chancellor, or designee, for adjudication, within fourteen (14) business days from the date the decision letter was sent to the student's registered email of record.

Appeals must be submitted in writing via email and must include a detailed explanation of the grounds for the appeal. Students and organizational complainants and respondents are entitled to be represented, at their expense, by an advisor in the appeal process.

The permissible grounds for an appeal are as follows:

- 1. Due process errors - The student must state how the alleged procedural error may have affected the outcome of the case.
- 2. New evidence not reasonably available prior to the disciplinary hearing that may have affected the outcome of the case (either findings of responsibility/non-responsibility or sanctions). The hearing body may consider police reports, transcripts, and the outcome of any civil or criminal proceeding directly related to the appeal.

3. Contradictory evidence, meaning the hearing panel made a significant error in its determination of the facts based on the available evidence.
4. Disproportionate sanctions, meaning the sanctions imposed are disproportionate to the Code violation(s).

The Chancellor, or designee, will review the appeal request and determine if grounds for an appeal have been met.

The Chancellor, or designee, may:

1. Find that the appeal is not timely or does not state adequate grounds for appeal according to the listing above and dismiss it.
2. Affirm the finding and sanction imposed.
3. Affirm the finding and reduce, but not eliminate, the sanction.
4. Remand the case back to the conduct officer or conduct hearing committee for consideration of new evidence or to remedy a procedural error.

The final decision on the appeal will be provided to the student through the student's registered email of record within ten (10) business days.

11.2 Appeal to the LCTC System Office

Within fourteen (14) business days of the final appeal decision from the College, a student may file an appeal with the LCTC System Office. Students and organizational complainants and respondents are entitled to be represented, at their expense, by an advisor in the process of appealing to the LCTC System Office.

The permissible grounds for appeal to the LCTC System Office are:

1. The college's published procedures do not provide due process.
2. The college's published procedures were carried out in an unfair or partial manner.

An appeal to the LCTC System Office must be emailed to students@lctcs.edu, or mailed to 265 S. Foster Road, Baton Rouge, LA, 70806, Attn: Student Affairs. An appeal must contain:

1. The name of the person submitting the appeal as it appears in the college's records;
2. Student ID number of the person submitting the appeal;
3. Mailing address of the person submitting the appeal;
4. Phone number of the person submitting the appeal;

5. Email address of the person submitting the appeal;
6. Dates of attendance;
7. The individual's current college status (current student, former student, parent or legal guardian if the student is an unemancipated minor);
8. A description of the nature and reason for the appeal; and
9. Any supporting documentation.

Once a formal request for appeal is received, LCTC System staff will:

1. Review the submitted materials and contact the individual who submitted the appeal for any additional information or clarifications needed.
2. Send a copy of the request for appeal to the college and request that a formal response and any relevant supporting documentation from the college be submitted to System Office staff within 10 business days.

Once all documents are received, LCTC System staff will:

1. Review the documents submitted to ensure that the college's published procedures provide due process and were carried out in a fair and impartial manner.
2. In the event that LCTC System staff cannot determine whether the college's published procedures provide due process or whether or not they were carried out in a fair and impartial manner based on the documents submitted, LCTC System staff may engage in any fact-finding reasonably required by the circumstances. This may include a request for either party to participate in a telephone conference meeting so that the facts can be clearly set forth.

Once the review process and any reasonably required fact-finding has concluded, LCTC System staff will notify, in writing, both the college and the individual who filed the appeal of the LCTC System staff's determination. This determination will represent the final disposition. Every effort will be made to resolve all appeals within 30 business days of the formal request for appeal.

11.3 Sanctions Pending Resolution of Appeal

Sanctions imposed for nonacademic misconduct will not take effect or be considered final until the conclusion of the appeals process. The appeal process concludes when any of the following occurs:

1. The deadline to appeal to the Chancellor passes without an initial appeal being filed;
2. If a student appeals to the Chancellor, the deadline to appeal to the LCTC System passes without an appeal being filed;
3. The LCTC System issues its appeal decision.

While appeals are pending, the college is permitted to take reasonable interim safety measures, including housing adjustments, academic changes, or mutual no-contact directives

12. Disciplinary Procedures for Academic Misconduct

Students responding to allegations of academic misconduct are entitled to reasonable notice of the allegations and an opportunity to be heard.

- 12.1 Instructor Discusses Alleged Violation With the Student - An instructor who believes that a student may be guilty of a form of academic misconduct should confront the student with the alleged violation. If the student is unable to provide a satisfactory explanation, the instructor may either fail the student for the assignment or test in question or forward the allegations to the Department Head or Dean of the academic department. If the instructor elects to fail the student for the assignment or test, the student may seek review by the appropriate Department Head or Dean within three days of instructor's decision to fail.
- 12.2 Instructor Submits an Incident Report - The instructor reports the incident to the College's chief academic officer, or designee. The instructor must document a detailed account of the violation, including the name of the course, type of assignment or test, date of the alleged violation, names of witnesses, and all information relevant to the allegation.
- 12.3 Department Head or Dean Review - If referred by the instructor or if requested by the student, the Department Head or Dean will review the charges and information provided by the Instructor and any information provided by the student. The Department Head or Dean may determine the allegations are founded or unfounded, or may summon the student for a conference before disposition of the academic misconduct charges. Notice of decision shall be provided to student's registered email of record.
- 12.4 Appeal to the Chief Academic Officer - Student has the right to appeal the case decision within three (3) days from the date the decision letter was sent to the student's registered email of record.

Appeals must be submitted in writing via email to the Chief Academic Officer, or a designee, and must include a detailed explanation of the grounds for the appeal.
- 12.5 Assignment of Grade of "Incomplete" - If disciplinary action for academic misconduct is pending when final grades are due, the instructor will assign the student an "Incomplete" or "I" grade. That notation will remain until the alleged violation is adjudicated by the Department Head or Dean, or Chief Academic Officer, at which time the instructor will assign the appropriate final grade.

13. Sanctions

Violations of the Conduct Code can result in one or more of the following sanctions. All sanctions become part of the student's conduct record. The list of sanctions is not a progression. Sanctions of ten (10) or more days of separation from the College may be imposed only after a finding of responsibility through the formal hearing process described in Section 9.

- 13.1 Disciplinary Warning: A written warning to a student that his/her conduct violated the Conduct Code, and that further misconduct will result in more severe disciplinary action. Disciplinary warning may include but not limited to a behavior agreement or contract.
- 13.2 Restitution: Compensation for damages or losses caused.
- 13.3 Loss of Privileges: Exclusion from college extracurricular activities, specified college facilities, or other restriction of movements while at the institution for a specified period of time. The student may still attend academic classes.
- 13.4 Program Dismissal: Administrative withdrawal from an academic program due to violation of the program's specific conduct standards, which may include violations of this Conduct Code or other program-specific policies. Tuition refunds for dismissed students are governed by each college's Refund Policy and are not guaranteed. The student may remain enrolled at the college even if dismissed from a specific academic program.
- 13.5 Disciplinary Probation: A specified period of time which is intended to foster reflection, responsibility, and improved decision making. During this period, the student is not in good standing with the college and may be barred from participating in certain college activities. Future violations of the code of conduct while a student is on disciplinary probation may result in additional and more severe sanctions, including suspension or dismissal.
- 13.6 Suspension: A specified period of time, during which a student is not permitted to participate or enroll in college classes. A student assigned this sanction will be administratively withdrawn from all enrolled classes upon the expiration of the appeal period. Tuition refunds for dismissed students are governed by each college's refund policy and are not guaranteed.
- 13.7 Dismissal/Expulsion: A permanent separation of a student from the college, which is assigned to the most serious conduct cases. A student assigned this sanction will be administratively withdrawn from all classes upon the expiration of the appeal period. Tuition refunds for dismissed students are governed by each college's refund policy and are not guaranteed.
- 13.8 Community Service: Service-learning hours or volunteer work.
- 13.9 Character Development: Required attendance at an educational workshop, research and writing assignments, or participation in a mentorship program.
- 13.10 Other Sanctions: Including, but not limited to, no contact orders or removal from a class, or academic related sanctions.
- 13.11 Lifetime Ban: A lifetime ban from a college's campus and college events, and/or from any or all other LCTC System colleges.

Student Conduct That May Lead to Lifetime Ban from all LCTC System Member College Campuses:

- 13.11.1 Possession of Firearms (except as allowed by La. R.S. 14:95.2 and any applicable law): This includes any gunpowder-based devices, projectile-firing devices, and all types of air rifles.
- 13.11.2 Terroristic Threats: Any form of terroristic threats, including threats involving bombs, chemicals, or biological agents.
- 13.11.3 Factors Considered for Issuing a Lifetime Ban:
 - 1. Whether the conduct is legally permissible,
 - 2. The student's intent,
 - 3. Opinions and assessments from law enforcement and medical professionals,
 - 4. Mitigating or aggravating circumstances.
- 13.11.4 Applying for Reinstatement: When considering reinstatement of a previously banned student, the college may evaluate:
 - 1. The time elapsed since the conduct occurred,
 - 2. Steps taken by the individual to rehabilitate their character,
 - 3. The nature and severity of the conduct,
 - 4. Character references

14. Student Leaders

All LCTC System institutions are committed to upholding and instilling in all students the highest standards of academic, personal, professional, and social integrity. However, student leaders, by virtue of their post, are considered to be role models within the college community and must therefore at all times exhibit behavior, on and off campus, that aligns with the college's mission and its student code of conduct. For purposes of this policy, student leaders include: student athletes, student government officials, student organization leaders, honor society leaders, and other official student leadership roles recognized by the college.

If a student leader is charged with a felony offense or serious misdemeanor, the student leader may be removed from his/her leadership position until final legal disposition of the matter. While charges do not constitute guilt, a student leader being charged could affect the college's reputation and/or the learning environment. Student leaders have a responsibility to self-report any felony or serious misdemeanor charges, within 48 hours, to their staff advisor, who will then inform college leadership. This policy will be enacted when a student self-reports or when college leadership becomes aware of the charges.

The decision to remove a student leader from his/her leadership position will be made by the college Chancellor, in consultation with the college's Chief Student and/or Academic Affairs Officer. The following factors will be considered when deciding whether or not to remove a student leader from his/her position following a felony offense or serious misdemeanor charge:

1. The impact having the student leader remain in his/her position may have on the college community as a whole;
2. Whether or not the felony or serious misdemeanor offense involved any other members of the LCTC System college community or property of an LCTC System college; and
3. The individual student leader's personal ability to fulfill in his/her leadership responsibilities while under investigation.

Once final legal disposition of the matter occurs, the college Chancellor, in consultation with the college's Chief Student and/or Academic Affairs Officer, may lift, modify, leave in place, extend, or make permanent the student's removal from the leadership position. Student leaders must be made aware of and acknowledge this policy upon their ascension to a leadership position.

15. Accommodations

- a. Students needing assistance or disability accommodations with respect to these procedures must request such in a timely manner so that appropriate actions can be taken without unnecessary delays to the process. Students should contact the College's ADA coordinator with requests or questions or for assistance.
- b. A student is presumed to be mentally and physically fit to participate in educational programming when he or she enrolls. If a student's conduct indicates they may not be fit, the college can require an evaluation of fitness to continue educational programming. The student will be required to follow any recommendations made by the evaluator.

16. Student Conduct Records Retention

Records will be maintained for at least seven (7) years.

Permanent sanctions on the student transcript, such as suspension or dismissal, are retained indefinitely.

17. Review Periodicity and Responsibility

The LCTC General Counsel, or designee, shall review LCTC Policy No. 2.004 – Student Conduct and Appeal Procedures annually beginning on July 1st of each year. BRCC will update this policy based on revisions by LCTC or as required by state or federal law.

This Code on student due process and protection, relative to disciplinary proceedings, right to counsel for students and student organizations, and appeals, is promulgated pursuant to Act 464, R.S. 17:3394, of the 2022 Regular Legislative Session of the Louisiana Legislature, Act 416 of the 2024 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, Act 441 of the 2026 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, and Act 497 of the Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature. Last revised 08/21/2026.
